

The Rules

- Read and have Fun
- Complete and document each of the 10 challenges on the inside of this brochure.
- Have a library member verify and initial
- For each task completed receive a small sweet /fun prize
- When you have finished all 10 challenges (before 31 Aug) receive a final sweet prize and an entry to the prize drawing

Answers

- Yes you might be able to read the same book for several of the challenges – that's ok
- The prize drawing is a surprise
- Yes we want you to checkout and read Pillsbury Free Library books
- Yes you may use Audio or e-Books

Extra Credit Tasks

- A. Do a project from the book you read for challenge #3. (show it to a Library Staff Member) Lib Initials _____
- B. Write a 150 word (or more), review of one of the books you read this summer, have it posted in the library
Lib Initials _____
- C. Attend an informal Reader's Group to share what you are reading. (The Local, 3 pm, Mon. Aug. 19; Schoodacs, 7:30 am Wed. Aug 7; or Library, 6:30 pm Thurs. July 25)
DATE: _____ Leader's Initials _____
- D. Be creative – make a piece of art or literature based on the theme of Reading/Books in space or on the moon. (Short story, essay, poem, painting, drawing or mixed media)
Lib Initials _____

Adult and Teen Summer Reading Challenge

*Pillsbury Free Library
Warner, NH
603-456-2289*

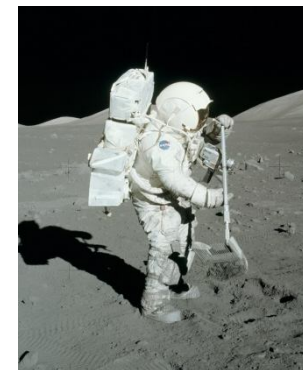

1 July - 31 Aug 2019

Complete 10 fun reading challenges during the summer of 2019

Instructions and rules are on the back of this booklet

Suggested list of titles are available at the Library.

FYI July 29th 2019 is the 50th anniversary of the 1st moon landing.

This challenge booklet belongs to:

If found please return to:
Pillsbury Free Library
18 E. Main St
Warner, NH 03278