Business News

Sad to hear, The Local Restaurant has announced it is closing, after 8 years as a fixture on Main Street. They will remain open long enough to deplete inventory (about 2 weeks). Thank you, Bill and co., for hanging in so long for us in such difficult times!

In happier news, Michael Prete will be moving into the FootHills Restaurant location, and we'll have a new restaurant in Town! His chef-owned and operated, award-winning restaurants are located in Andover (The Kitchen) and Portsmouth. His wife grew up in Hopkinton and they live in Salisbury.

New, just in time for Mothers' Day! Tarah Lynne Caron, of TLC Photography specializes in Newborn and Family photography and has recently moved into the front section of the Velvet Moose building at 25 E. Main St. Get a special photo of the kids or grandkids with, or for, Mom / Grandma! <https://www.tlclovephotography.com/> (978) 877-8506, or facebook.com/TLClovePhotography starting May 1, 2021

New construction! You may have noticed activity near the roundabout at Exit 9 opposite the Park and Ride, including tree clearing. Comet LLC received conditional Planning Board approval March 3 for new retail buildings at Exit 9 next to Evans Fuel Mart. Dunkin' Donuts will relocate there, and there will be additional retail or office space. More information on the Town website: Planning Board Minutes, Presentation map, Dunkin' Donuts building design, and other documents are on the Land use cases page.

Gardening = Fresh Food!

Warner Connects Community Resource Center in Warner is participating again in "Tray it Forward", distributing free trays of food and herb plants provided by area growers and sponsors so that people can grow some of their own food. Two levels are available depending on your garden or container space. The "gardens" can be picked up or delivered. Soil, tools and advice are also available throughout the season. Starts May 24. Contact Lori at 603-456-2053. For more about it, watch the YouTube Video by Kearsarge Food Hub www.youtube.com/watch?v=XdDb9QnTGI4

Free programs from NH Food Bank and UNH Extension:

A series of virtual cooking classes called "Cooking with the Seasons" – each month they will be highlighting what is in season here in NH and showing how to use local produce. They will also be highlighting how to access seasonal produce for those with SNAP benefits with things like Granite State Market Match and Double Up Food Bucks.

More info and other Food program registration pages can be found HERE.
