Stained Glass Restored

Jamie Morgan of Jamie Morgan Design Stained Glass of Wilmot, N.H. has completed the meticulous repair and rebuilding of the two stained glass transoms on the west side of the historic library building, facing Main Street BookEnds. When the interior drop ceiling that hid the transoms was removed in 2017, multiple cracks, and even one hole in the glass were discovered. Funding for the repair and rebuilding of the two windows was provided by a Conservation License Plate Grant from the N.H. State Council on the Arts.

Fun fact: the lead ("came") used for a few decades around the time of the Library's construction in 1891 was a purer lead than in earlier times, and was more brittle. Once this was realized, a newer lead alloy was developed that lasts far longer. Therefore these repairs have also greatly extended the potential life of these windows.

Thursday Story Times at 10:30 am. See the Warner Events calendar for the Zoom sign-in link.

For any student, when looking for a fun book to read or something for school, search the catalog by subject. However, asking a librarian is another way to find what you need or want. Librarians love to help, not only to get you what you need, but also teach you how to do it yourself.

For Homeschoolers, you may already have your resources in place but just an FYI. There is the N.H. Homeschooling Coalition that may be a helpful resource. <https://nhhomeschooling.org/> or at Facebook.com/NHhomeschoolingcoalition

Teen Talk by Linda Lacasse

Teen Reading... raise kids who love to read!

Graphic novels are one of the fastest growing genres in libraries and bookstores and have become especially popular among teenage readers. These novels tell stories through a combination of prose and pictures — generally in the form of comics, or what is known as “sequential art”. Books are available to download online or borrow from the library. Ours are labeled GRA.

Calamity Jack by Shannon and Dean Hale

Jack likes to think of himself as a criminal mastermind . . . with an unfortunate amount of bad luck. A schemer, plotter, planner, trickster, swindler . . . maybe even thief? ... Read More

Rapunzel's Revenge by Shannon and Dean Hale

Welcome to Warner, Cafe One East!

Schoodacs is now Cafe One East and will be open for business Saturday September 5, through the 3-day Labor Day weekend, 7 am - 2 pm. Shawn Coe and family are the new owners, and say "The coffee and smoothie menu will look very similar, with only minor changes. We'll offer a variety of pastries, bagels and breakfast sandwiches in the am, and soup, grilled cheeses and that famous chicken salad for lunch. There will be some specials too." (from their Facebook post). Welcome!

More Local Businesses in the Spotlight

Still open for business: Thanks to our local businesses, there are many services available to us with minimal travel, in addition to the food and cultural sources mentioned in previous newsletters. For example, on central Main Street: Warner Wags (pet grooming), Brown Family Realty, Kearsarge Insurance Agency, Sugar River Bank, Harry's Garage, Hegnauer Holistic Health, Family Tree Health Care, and at Brookside (51 East Main) you can find Bella Capelli hair salon, The Warner Barber, an Attorney, and Mental Health /counseling services (see photo of sign).

Many other local businesses, both with and without a storefront, are members of the Kearsarge Area Chamber of Commerce (KACC), and therefore listed in the directory of the KearsargeChamber.org website and in their brochure. You can find electricians, pet boarding, chimney cleaning, and many more area businesses, services, and nonprofits.

A big shout-out also to Warner's Dan Watts, who is the sustaining energy behind the KACC, and whose business, Dimentech.com also provides website hosting and technical support to many nonprofits and businesses in Warner. (Full disclosure: Dimentech hosts the Library and Town websites)

Keep in touch, support your Community businesses. Shop local!
