To Do

Be safe: stay home and phone, Zoom, Skype or Facetime family and friends, or learn something new...

Watch: Warner history

One of the first American women in Europe during the First World War, singer Caroline Gardner Bartlett was a relief worker who eventually found herself accused of spying for the Germans. Bartlett and her husband moved from Boston to Warner, NH, to establish a singing school in 1904.

To learn more about Sister Beatrice, watch "Supplies and Spies: The Adventures of Caroline Gardner Bartlett," a program delivered by Library Director Sarah Galligan during the NH Historical Society's 2017 Spring Lecture Series, New Hampshire and the Great War.

You can watch the lecture at <https://vimeo.com/nhhistory/sisterbeatrice>.

Museum news:

Tech Tip: Kanopy streaming movies

Our account on Kanopy is free for you, and

If you are not already signed up, go to WarnerNH.kanopy.com and create a personalized account using your email and any password of your choice.

offers documentaries, small studio films, Award winners & nominees, foreign films, public television, educational kids TV, etc. Starting in January, and immediately for new accounts, we have increased the monthly limit on "plays" to 10 per month per account (plus unlimited Kanopy Kids as always), not including unlimited "credit free" titles which can be found by scrolling down the lists to the "credit free viewing" section.

Next time you sign in, look for the smaller sign in button at the top. There is a Kanopy app, but we find it more effective to search for titles on the website. Once you select a film to watch, you have 3 days to finish it. It works on TVs, (Roku etc), computers and mobile devices. More instructions Here or scroll down at WarnerNH.kanopy.com for FAQs and titles.
