

You Should See Me in a Crown

by Leah Johnson

Romance/Realistic Fiction

Liz Lighty has always done her best to avoid the spotlight in her small, wealthy, and prom-obsessed Midwestern high school. Instead she has concentrated on her grades and her musical ability in the hopes that it will win her a scholarship to elite Pennington College and their famous orchestra where she plans to study medicine. When that scholarship falls through she is forced to turn to her school's scholarship for prom king and queen, which plunges her into the gauntlet of social media which she hates and leads her to discoveries about her own identity and the value of true friendships.

All These Monsters

by Amy Tintera

Dystopian

Clara is ready to fight back against her abusive father, against the only life she's ever known, and most of all, against scrabs, the earth-dwelling monsters that are currently ravaging the world. Scrabs are unpredictable, violent, and terrifying. When an opportunity arises for Clara to join an international monster-fighting squad, she jumps at the chance. Scrabs are unpredictable, violent, and terrifying. As Clara gains confidence in her battle skills, she starts to realize scrabs might not be the biggest evil. The true monsters are the ones you least expect.

Be Not Far From Me

by Mindy McGinnis

Realistic Fiction

Lost in the Great Smoky Mountains, rising high school senior Ashley Hawkins must fight for survival without any tools, growing in awareness that the world is not tame, and neither are people.

Body Talk: 37 Voices Explore Our Radical Anatomy

edited by Kelly Jensen

Story Collection

We all experience the world in a body, but we don't usually take the time to explore what it really means to have and live in one. In this collection of essays, lists, comics and art, readers will explore how every body is unique, and tells its own story.

Cemetery Boys

by Aiden Thomas

Fantasy

Yadriel, a trans boy, summons the angry spirit of his high school's bad boy, and agrees to help him learn how he died, thereby proving himself a brujo, not a bruja, to his conservative family.

Foul is Fair

by Hannah Capin

Thriller

Elle and her friends Mads, Jenny, and Summer rule their glittering LA circle; they are a 'coven' and have the kind of power other girls only dream of. Every party is theirs and the world is at their feet... until the night of Elle's sweet sixteen, when they crash a St. Andrew's Prep party. The night the boys choose Elle as their next target. They picked the wrong girl. Sworn to vengeance, Elizabeth Jade becomes "Jade" and transfers to St. Andrew's. And she and her coven have the perfect way in: a boy named Mack, whose ambition could turn deadly.

A Good Girl's Guide to Murder

by Holly Jackson

Mystery

As her senior capstone project, Pippa Fitz-Amobi is determined to find the real killer in a closed, local murder case, but not everyone wants her meddling in the past.

The NH Teen Book Award Committee recommends the audiobook, narrated by a full cast.

This Light Between Us

by Andrew Fukuda

Three high school students attempt to repair their lives after a school shooting .

We Are Not From Here

by Jenny Torez Sanchez

Realistic Fiction

Pulga has his dreams. Chico has his grief. Pequeña has her pride. And these three teens have one another. But, none of them have illusions about the town they've grown up in and the dangers that surround them. Even with the love of family, threats lurk around every corner. And when those threats become all too real, the trio knows they have no choice but to run: from their country, from their families, from their beloved home. Crossing from Guatemala through Mexico, they follow the route of La Bestia, the perilous train system that might deliver them to a better life -- if they are lucky enough to survive the journey.
