Another Little Free Library was installed recently by Peter Anderson and Gary Young, on the lawn of Cafe One East and it is managed by Peter. This and the red one at NHTM are both registered in the nationwide Little Free Library Book-Sharing Network. LittleFreeLibrary.org. How this works - "Take one, Leave one". Anyone may take a book, but then you are encouraged to add a book you are finished reading to replace the one you are taking. Books for children are encouraged, too. There is no extra place to store additional books so please only replace what you take. Join the fun and think about what your neighbors may like to read!
