Warner people

5 years ago the Exit 9 roundabout was built, and later dedicated to Barbara Annis, who led the drive for a "traffic calming" solution and held many active positions in Warner's organizations and committees. Photo from Kimberley Brown Edelmann.

"Local boy" Jesse McNeil rode coast to coast at age 37 on his horse Pepper. Read about it in "On the Hoof", available from MainStreet BookEnds or at onthehoofbook.com. Illustrations are by local artist Sean Carroll.

Supporters and friends of Jesse McNeil may also want to visit a GoFundMe page set up last year to help Jesse with costs associated with recovering from a severe injury that occurred on a later adventure. www.gofundme.com/f/love-for-jesse-and-lindsay

Charles "Bud" Thompson, founder of the Mt. Kearsarge Indian Museum, passed away last week at 99 years of age. From the time he was a young boy, Bud cultivated a love for all things Native American. At the age of 70, he turned his passion into the Mt Kearsarge Indian Museum in Warner, with his extensive personal collection of Native artifacts serving as the foundation for this award-winning museum. Condolences to family of Judith Stabile who passed away July 25, 2021 Obituary

Congratulations to Ginger Marsh, Branch Manager of Warner and Grantham Sugar River Bank, has been promoted to AVP/Regional Branch Administrator. This newly created position will oversee, support, and enhance branch retail operations by working closely with all branch managers.

Thomas Dunn of Warner is hosting a "Thank you bash" for "Friends of River Dave" on Saturday, Aug. 21 at 1 Melvin Mill Rd from 10 am to 5 pm. Flatbread pizza and music provided. https://www.unionleader.com/news/human_interest/river-dave-thank-you-bash-scheduled-for-saturday-in-warner/article_

More Bears!

Kimberley Brown Edelmann shared this great photo of a bear in her cherry tree on Kearsarge Mountain Road.

August 27 at 7 pm!

Warner resident Peter St. James, WNTK 99.7 radio host and outdoors reporter (see his column in the weekly InterTown Record), says there have been sightings of up to 10 different individual bears on the Mountain this year, of which 6-8 seem to be cubs from this year.

By the way - Peter will give a talk about the History of Radio in-person at the NH Telephone Museum, Friday,

Flowers Galore!

Mystery solved! The sturdy planter filled with beautiful flowers that arrived mysteriously at the library a few weeks ago, and two in front of Warner Town Hall, were created and delivered by the fine gardening division of Pellettieri Associates Inc. (PAI) of Warner. THANK YOU, Heather Otten and others!.

And in case you are new to Warner, the lovely plantings around the statue of General Walter Harriman are maintained by Martha Mical. THANK YOU Martha for all your time and work keeping our Town center beautiful. (Photo)

Missing flowers: if you took the flower pot off the cement rail at the Warner Transfer Station please return it. You probably thought it was there as a freebie but it was not.

Pet Poses

Pet Poses Album

We have received many cute and creative images of pets featured as a book character or posed any way that relates to a book. The one here is of Mando the Scottish Terrier acting out "Go, Dog, Go!", submitted by the LeClair family.

We will have an FB album to show them off (check in to our FB next week) - still happy to receive more, so send yours to be added!

TEEN TALK by Linda

The MONSTERS Duology... All These Monsters (#1) & All These Warriors (#2) By Amy Tintera

A high-stakes sci-fi adventure about a teen girl who will do anything to escape her troubled home—even if that means joining a dangerous monster-fighting squad. Perfect for fans of Warcross and Renegades.

eventeen-year-old Clara is ready to fight back. Fight back against her abusive father, fight back against the only life she's ever known, and most of all, fight back against scrabs, the earth-dwelling monsters that are currently ravaging the world. So when an opportunity arises for Clara to join an international monster-fighting squad, she jumps at the chance.

When Clara starts training with her teammates, however, she realizes what fighting monsters really means: sore muscles, exhaustion, and worst of all, death. Scrabs are unpredictable, violent, and terrifying. But as Clara gains confidence in her battle skills, she starts to realize scrabs might not be the biggest evil. The true monsters are the ones you least expect.
