Workforce housing application at Exit

9: The Zoning board is conferring with legal representation and reconvening next Tuesday August 16, to get clarification on whether the building has to be 100% workforce housing or whether having a handful of market rate apartments in there as well also qualifies. If not it would require a variance rather than an exception.

Changes in KRSD Bus Routes for the 2022-2023 School Year

A letter about New Hampshire school bus driver shortage on the Kearsarge Regional School District's bus routes for the 2022-2023 school years. includes the following information: Please take the time to review the new bus routes posted at www.kearsarge.org (scroll down to bottom of page)

Some routes have been removed and others have been changed.

Buses that typically transport 25-35 students may see an increase in student riders. Students may be riding 2 to 3 per seat which will not allow for social distancing.

We encourage you to periodically review the routes for necessary changes. Bus Passes (requesting to travel on a different bus than school to home): We will need to temporarily suspend bus pass requests, until we determine demand for each route. This does not impact students taking different buses for before or after school care. Students should plan to be at the bus stop 5-10 minutes before scheduled pick up time. Questions? Stacy Fogwill, Transportation Director, sfogwill@ridesta.com will respond via email within two work days

If you have not yet signed up your children for fall soccer, please do it now: https://go.teamsnap.com/forms/327381 WYSA is extending the deadline to register to THIS MONDAY, Aug. 15 - but that is the latest possible date.

Honoring David McCullough by Roger Robbins

David McCullough, who passed away on August 7, was an accomplished and much beloved historian. His style was not the dryasdust, turgid prose that many readers fear in a history book. He put flesh and bones on his subjects, creating driving narratives that read like a good novel.

David McCullough in the Pillsbury Free Library:

- -1776
- -The Path Between Two Seas (Also: audiobook)
- -The Johnstown Flood
- -The Greater Journey: Americans In Paris, 1830-1900
- -Mornings on Horseback
- -The Wright Brothers
- -The Pioneers: The Heroic Story of the Settlers Who Brought the American Ideal West
- -John Adams (also: dvd; audiobook)
- -The American Spirit: Who We are and What We Stand For

Teen Talk by Ella

Love and Gelato by Jenna Evans Welch

Lina is spending the summer in Tuscany, but she isn't in the mood for Italy's famous sunshine and fairy-tale landscape. She's only there because it was her mother's dying wish that she get to know her father. All Lina wants to do is get back home. But then Lina is given a journal that her mom had kept when she lived in Italy. Suddenly Lina's uncovering a magical world of secret romances, art, and hidden bakeries. A world that inspires Lina, along with the ever-so-charming Ren, to follow in her mother's footsteps and unearth a secret that has been kept for far too long. It's a secret that will change everything Lina knew about her mother, her father—and even herself.
