Library and Arts Funding updates: on Wed. May 21 the NH Senate Finance Committee voted to keep the NH State Council on the Arts, a division within Department of Natural and Cultural Resources, unfunded. They also voted to start a state fund that can accept private and corporate donations in support of the arts and funded it with $1. So, as of now, the next State of NH biennium budget will fund the arts with $1. The sentiment was expressed that the council is a “want” not a need and that the arts in the state could be kept going with a voluntary council with members who can fill any necessary administrative functions.

Further, the $300,000 “back of the budget cut” for the entire Department of Natural and Cultural Resources (State Parks, Arts Council and NH State Library) remains in effect.
There is no decision yet about how that will affect the State Library’s programs and services (The NHSL assists libraries with services such as Interlibrary Loan and Downloadable books, technology assistance for librarians, and public research services.)
